EDITORIAL NOTES.

Fitz. Lee's Christmas dinner, at his Havanna headquarters, will be an enjoyable event, even if Blanco didn't stay to attend it:

As Col. Bryan went into the army to fight, and the fighting is all over, there is nothing surprising about his resignation. There are several million voters who agree with Col, Rryan in thinking that his time can be put in much better than commanding a regiment in garrison.

"Teddy" doesn't only jump around lively himself, but he keeps all the New York Republicans jumping, and guessing. If the band dosen't play "There'll be a hot time in this old State next year," at his inauguration, it will overlook a bet.

&! Spain is puting up a very good imitation of being dissatisfied with the selling price of the Philippines!

Three out of the five American the President's table. Peace Commissioners being Senators, it is not surprising that Senatorial methods were adopted and the text of the treaty kept secret.

As individuals John Bull and Uncle Sam are each too fond of bossing things to be anccessful as joint owners of the the treaty of peace with Spain. Nicaragua Canal,or of anything else.

The citizens of Atlanta wish it dis tinctly understood that theirs was the only bona fide Peace Jubilee of the whole bunch,

The marked contrast between Mayor Carter Harrison and Gov. Tanner may result in making Carter governor.

The big price it obtained for a ver troublesome lot of ground-the Philippines-ought to encourage the Spanish government to make a specialty of s elling unproductive real estate.

The length of the Peace treaty-7,500 words-makes it unlikely that the most enterprising newspaper would be willing to steal a copy of it for the p urpose of cabling it over in full, even if an opportunity to do so were offered.

Southern hospitality opened wide its doors to the Presidential party, and it will be a long time before any member of the party forgets their experience "Away down South, in Dinie"

On the expanion question Mr, Mc-Kinley is once more proving that he is are kept! a follower, not a leader.

Mayor Harrison, of Chicago, in heading off the railroad steal which had been arranged through the boodlers in the city council, has exhibited a real backbone.

There are a great many New Yorkers who will refuse to accept Tom and Teddy as a satisfactory substitute for Tom and Jerry.
